BURGLAR RANSACKS WETMORE HOME

LEG IS CRUSHED UNDER WHEELS OF MARTINEZ TRAIN YESTERDAY A. M.

Raymond Condo, Relative of Famous Artist, Attempts to Steal Ride With Companion and Loses Limb When Ordered to Jump—Amputate Between Knee and Foot.

While trying to beat his way on the 1:15 train from Martinez yesterday morning, Raymond Condo, a young German violin player, jumped from his footboard on the blind end of a passenger coach when threatened with a club by a brakeman, and fell under the wheels, losing his left leg. With him was another musician named Alphonse Schmitts, who jumped with him, but escaped injury.

Schmitts rushed back to Martinez for assistance and the injured boy, who is 23 years old, was hurried in an automobile to the county hospital, where his leg was amputated between the knee and ankle.

At 5 o'clock this morning he was resting easily and the attending physician declared that he had every chance of a speedy recovery.

The two itinerant musicians had been playing in Martinez for the last few days, having come from Sacramento.

When the brakeman discovered the pair, according to Schmitts, he ordered them off and then threatened them with a club. The train was going fast and they hesitated to jump. They jumped together and Condo shrieked as the wheels crushed his leg.

Condo is said to be a relative of the well known cartoonist, originator of Everett Tass, of the same name.

GATHERING MORE EVIDENCE IN THE EMERSON CASE

Maxwell McNatt, attorney for the labor unions, who is working on the Emerson case, was in Martinez yesterday conferring with Chief Deputy District Attorney Ormsby.

Evidence is being gathered against others involved in the dynamite plot. At present the prosecution is banding its efforts toward tracing two sacks of dynamite that were transported from Bay Point to Stockton and back again.

Emerson will be brought before Justice Hayden again next Tuesday morning for a preliminary hearing on the charge of transporting explosives.

PLANS TO SETTLE TITLES ON TIDE LANDS FORMED

A plan to settle the title to thousands of acres of tide lands around the Richmond water-front, by sharing the burden equally between the owners and the city, has been formulated, and will be presented to the city council at the Monday night session, according to the statement of Mayor E. J. Garrard and other councilmen at the meeting of the Richmond Industrial Commission yesterday. The plan was submitted to the commission and approved by them, and Colonel Reese.

The title to the tide lands has been under dispute since the formation of the state, and all of the land which was originally owned by the state has been subdivided and passed into private and corporate ownership.

These submerged lands on the San Pablo bay water front aggregate about 645 acres on Potrero water front about 1153 acres and on the inner harbor water front, east of Point Potrero and north of the Alameda Contra Costa county line, about 215 acres.

SECRET SERVICE MEN WATCH FOR HEATHEN CHINESE

Two United States secret service men spent yesterday at Ferry Point watching the movements of those who entered the boats. They were inspectors Davis and Williams.

When asked their purpose, they stated that they were in Richmond watching for Chinese contraband, and would probably make Ferry Point their headquarters temporarily, as it was considered a logical place for the landing of Chinese from the Mexican borders.

Although the trains are watched around the Mexican borders, the Chinese have been getting out in large quantities, and the government is using every precaution to watch for them, and prohibit their landing.

To complete the proposed work on the inner harbor, it will be necessary to condemn many of the tide land lots.

Among some of the owners are C. F. Baker, W. H. Bishop, A. S. Blake, East Shore Company, Percie Haley, G. E. Milnes, Mrs. P. Scranton, Anglo Development Company, J. J. Cook, M. J. Cook, M. G. Henshaw, I. O. Hogdon, Henry Lake, M. J. Marlow, John Nicholl, San Pablo Quarry Company, Standard Oil Company, Santa Fe Company, West San Pablo Water Company, Berkeley, Water Front Company, Ellis & Gilling, J. C. Eschen, G. Nelson, Wm. McRackon, Wm. Minter, People's Water Co. and Point Richmond Canal and Land Co.

Mayor Garrard said that Richmond now had about $50,000 available for harbor improvement work, and that this amount would probably be spent in the very near future to improve the harbor, on the understanding that it is to be credited to the city, under the agreement of the river and harbor bill that the federal government is to put up as much as the city does in improving the harbor.

This later proposition was also given the official endorsement of the Richmond Industrial Commission.

It was understood that the work which would be tackled first by the city would be dredging off from where the new city dock will be placed after completion of the Richmond municipal tunnel.

Mrs. Granella Host To Friends

Mrs. Granella of Prospect avenue, Point Richmond, entertained a number of her friends this afternoon. Her home was beautifully decorated in pink and white carnations. Refreshments were served.

Those present were Mrs. A. Schwartz, Mrs. Stoker, Mrs. Gardine, Mrs. Schilling, Mrs. J. P. Hansen and her daughter, Hilda.

COMMISSION WILL MEET IN CITY HALL TUESDAY NIGHT TO ELECT HEADS

Members of Board Want Business Man as President—W. R. McRacken and E. M. Tilden Are Suggested—Four Applications Received for the Secretaryship.

Speculation is rife over the outcome of the meeting of the Water Commission, which has been set for Tuesday night. At that time the vacancies caused by the resignations of Levi Boswell, president of the board, and Secretary John L. Chandler will be filled.

It has been decided that the Water Commission will meet at the city hall after November 3, as the downtown offices, although more convenient, will not be necessary any longer, and the $30 rent a month can be put to better advantage.

Up to date but one application has been received for the position of commissioner. That is from C. F. Evans. The commission will not consider its consideration to the applications on hand, it was practically assured, and it is understood that the names of several business men of the city will be proposed, in the hope that the new man may be able to inject business management into the commission.

Among the names suggested, outside of the application now on file, are those of W. R. McRacken and E. M. Tilden.

Should either of these men be named, it is believed that they will be selected as president of the board.

Four applications for the position of secretary have been received up to last night. They are from Clyde Hopping, W. J. Kane, Lulu Rowe and H. G. Stidham.

Several weeks ago it was rumored that Charles Blanchard was to resign from the board, but several members said last night that this movement was not expected for the present at least.

The meeting of November 3, with the business men of the city, will probably take up some of the attention of the board Tuesday night. In the future plans of the commission, and in fact the existence of the commission itself may depend on the result of the conference, and the sense of the conference.

B. T. COUNCIL ENDORSES W. F. PETILLON

The Contra Costa Building Trades Council last night concurred in the endorsement of W. F. Petillon for president by the 2700 Club.

Novel Session Of Degree Work

Acantha Chapter, Eastern Star, will hold a novel session at degree work this evening in Richmond Hall, corner of Ninth and Macdonald.

In lieu of the regular officers of the society, the work will be done by a corps of gentlemen officers, taking the place of the women.

Following the ceremonies, which will be very elaborate, a banquet will be served.

According to statements made last night, visitors from Oakland, Pinole and Bay City chapters were present.

Searches Every Room Leaves Coin, Jewelry

Silverware and Cash Worth $700 are Scorned By Strangest of House-breakers. Find No Clues

A burglar who burgled without taking a cent, when he handled $700 in coin and jewelry, and overturned more than fifty pounds of silverware, has perpetrated the most mysterious daylight house-breaking which has ever been reported to the police department of this city, when he broke into the home of William Wetmore, 447 Fourteenth street, yesterday afternoon.

The door, which was locked both with the ordinary latch and a Yale lock, was opened without violence. Every room in the house was turned topsy-turvy. Even shirts from the bureau drawers were torn from the wrappers in which they came from the laundries, and the pockets searched.

Earmarks of a long and carefully laid plot have been discovered. The Wetmores formerly keep a dog in the house, which had a habit of barking. The dog was poisoned mysteriously several days before the housebreaking. The time Wetmore was out of the house, and during the period which Mrs. Wetmore left for San Francisco was chosen as the period for the raid.

A ring at the doorbell at the time the man (or woman) was working failed to disturb him at his work. So brazen was the daring person that a card which was left in the front door was carefully taken inside and placed on the parlor table.

The deepest of mystery surrounds the entire affair. Although thousands of dollars of removable property were handled, and in some cases thrown upon the floor, and although money and articles of jewelry, which could have been converted into cash without trouble, were picked up, and moved from place to place, not a penny's worth of property could be found missing.

As Wetmore keeps all of his valuable papers in a safe deposit box in San Francisco, no papers of any consequence were taken, and when interviewed last night, he said that he did not know of any papers or documents which any person would want.

Not only is Wetmore puzzled, but the police department, after going carefully over the ground, have been unable to find the slightest clue which might lead to the suspicion of a motive for the mysterious affair.

The ransacked house is next door to the residence of Sergeant Jennings of the police force, and Mrs. Jennings reported the matter to her husband, who immediately notified the police department.

No damaging finger prints have been obtained, and the systematic work of upturning all of the moveable furniture in the house, was conducted in such a way as to leave practically no clue either to the perpetrator or the motive of the housebreaking.

Mrs. Wetmore went to San Francisco in the morning, and had told her husband of her proposed visit.

In the afternoon Wetmore left the house, and remembered having left the jewelry and money under a magazine in his bedroom. He thought to himself that it was an exceedingly foolish thing to do, and started to return to remove it from the house. He remembered that the house was securely fastened, and on second thought decided to take a chance and leave it at home. When he returned in the evening, and his wife informed him of the robbery, he remarked to her: "I'll bet they got the money and the rings; they were in my room." They went to the rooms together, and instead of finding them safely hid under the magazine, where they were left, they were

Lose Boat—All Night Wait In Blind

Here's the first good hunting story of the season, in which Geo. W. Nelson, O. T. Hets and R. W. Throver are the principals.

The trio went on a shooting expedition on San Pablo bay last Monday. At 8 p. m. they were in their blind and after an hour and a half of waiting Throver shot a duck.

Nelson left in a boat to get the blind, got it and returned triumphantly. But he forgot to tie the boat and the tide took it out into the bay, while the three night hunters were gazing over that one lone duck.

And the sun went down and it grew colder and they sat in that blind and shivered.

The sluggish hours dragged by and slowly the tide went out. By 3 o'clock they started to wade to shore, waist deep in mud.

Their bag amounted to two canvasback ducks.

INQUEST FAILS TO CLEAR UP DEATH MYSTERY

Death Of Wm. Fowler Still Remains Unexplained

The evidence brought out by the coroner's inquest to determine the cause of death of William M. Fowler, who was struck by a train on the head Monday morning, failed to bring forth any information positively establishing the way he came to his death.

The verdict of the jury was that he came to his death by a fractured skull caused by being struck by train number 84, local, east bound of the Santa Fe Company.

Testimony showed that at 11:30 the man had been told to flag the train, and that he had left the caboose to perform his work. That he was not going to take a ride was established by the fact that steak was

MEET TO BOOST HARBOR PROJECT

Members of the city council attended the meeting of the Richmond Industrial Commission yesterday, in the Hearst building, San Francisco, for the purpose of discussing the problems regarding the appropriation for the Richmond harbor project, under the river and harbor bill, which is to come up before Congress December 7.

A telegram from Congressman Curry was received, in which it was stated that Richmond would be included in the appropriation, inasmuch as both the harbor engineers and Colonel Reese had reported favorably upon it.

The matter of sending a delegation to Washington to give personal attention to the passing of the bill was brought up. The mayor, one of the councilmen and a citizen, were suggested as the personnel of the committee. It was not, however, definitely settled that a commission would be necessary, many sharing the opinion that as much could be accomplished with the recommendations of the harbor commissioners, and the work of Congressman Curry.

Upon the request of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, the commission endorsed the proposed $10,000,000 San Francisco improvement amendment, which is to be paid for out of harbor receipts. The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce last night endorsed to the Richmond harbor project.

Mayor Garrard addressed the meeting, speaking of the necessity for prompt action on the part of Richmond and discussing the various problems of starting the work at once while waiting for things to take shape in Washington.

Before the members of the commission who were present, were Mayor E. J. Garrard, Councilmen J. G. Pollard and E. L. Fernald, City Attorney Hall, Colonel Reese and Engineers F. A. Hayward and S. Tribbitt.

TWO OF DYNAMITE DICK'S REPORTS.

While Emerson was working for the M. M. & E. under the supervision of H. C. Brokaw, he sent his superior reports almost daily. Some of them were hundreds of words long and typewritten. On August 19 he reported to Brokaw of "the movements of the wrecking gang of the labor unions concerned in the Stockton open shop fight."

Parts of the literary gem gives one a rather clear idea of the workings of the plot to discredit the labor unions and place some of the leaders in jail.

Said Emerson's letter:

"Monday, August 17, Kowski received some money from Anton Johansen with instructions to purchase a light draft motor boat suitable for Stockton channel or San Joaquin river.

"Their object in securing a motor boat is to sneak up Stockton channel to the vicinity of Sperry Flour Mills, which seems to be one of their most detested enemies. Labor leaders have made these fellows believe that the destruction of the Sperry Flour Mills would put fear into the hearts of the M. M. & E. and would cause a good many to withdraw their support on fear of death and destruction.

"This gang is particularly bitter against the members of the Stockton M. M. & E., as they have imagined the union men of Stockton were immune from any 'open shop' proposition. Our only method of combatting the proposed outrages in Stockton is to keep a constant surveillance over the brutal cowards whom labor leaders are paying for the dirty work. Every bit of information obtained from Kowski check up so far as the limits of safety will allow, and am making memorandum of some for use of proper authorities in the future. So you gentlemen can see that there is constant danger of making a bad move, but I will try every way to trap these wreckers. To arrest any of this gang at this stage of the game would cause a miscarriage of justice, as the real perpetrators or cause of same would escape, and your strongest and most undeniable argument against labor union thugs would go to smash. So please permit me to suggest that we depend upon our present source of information—and beat the BIG BUGS of organized labor at their own game."

Here he shows what he really could do with his imagination: "Extra caution," he declares, "must be used in dealing with these men, because they would not hesitate to do away with anyone who interferes with their dirty work. Not long ago two of their gang cut to pieces one of their kind, who they suspected was giving information to some one in Stockton. This victim's body was found in a tank house at Livermore, horribly mutilated, and officers have failed to apprehend the brutal murderers."

The murderer, a youthful tramp, was apprehended a bit later and confessed. That probably didn't bother the writer of the report, whoever he was.

Towards the end of the voluminous communication, Emerson, or whoever wrote it, says:

"The unions are paying this gang to attempt destruction of industrial establishments in Stockton and it is up to us to beat them at their own game and to get them on the job, thereby furnishing information and evidence that no judge or jury in the land will refuse to convict."

He sent many such letters. In his first confession he declared that Brokaw wrote many of the reports and he copied them.

It was written for evidence, of course. Compare it with the following brief telegram, which was sent by Emerson to Brokaw at the time of the burglary of the box car:

"Missing part supplied; 850 gang en route Sacramento. Your cottonwood organization all right. Wire me twenty-five, care of Western Union, Antioch. Waive identification. 2000."

The dynamite car had been burglarized and Emerson wired that the "missing part" had been supplied.

Editor Daily News:

What is the matter with the Richmond police? Can it be they do not know of the hunting on the water-front? They hunt with shotguns and rifles. In no other town on the bay is hunting permitted in the city limits.

Not only is the hunting unlawful, but it is dangerous for any one to walk on Richmond avenue where it borders on the slough, or in fact any place along the levee. Some parents permit their boys to carry rifles of small caliber and let them shoot birds along the water-front when they have no hunting licenses and no knowledge of handling a gun. Cannot something be done to stop this?

Just this morning I overheard two people talking about a wounded gull. One made the remark that whoever unlawfully shot the bird should be arrested. The other answered that the police knew nothing of it, or there would be some arrests.

I know of no better way of informing them and at the same time the parents of the boys than through the Daily News, which comes nearer to being fair and square in every respect than any other paper in town, and I take them all.

Sincerely,
A CONSTANT READER.

ADS ARE POPULAR READING

A newspaper's information is so varied it contains news to suit everyone. Some years ago a person who read the ads in the newspaper or a magazine was considered odd, and it is true the ads were crude, the articles advertised often being out of season or of a style and texture entirely out of fashion. But now it is different. Advertising furnishes the most interesting reading matter in the newspaper. It is instructive, teaching the public how to reduce the cost of living and at the same time get the best standard goods.

If you don't already read ads get the habit—it's a liberal education.

LOCAL COUNCIL RECEIVES WIRE FROM MOTHER JONES

The following telegram was received by the Contra Costa Building Trades Council last night and read by Business Agent Fred Heckman:

Denver, Colo., Oct. 20, 1914.
Building Trades Council,
Richmond, Cal.: State militia again mobilizing in Southern Colorado coal fields. Same crowd that brutally murdered nineteen of our men, women and children at Ludlow. Federal troops still in the field, but doing nothing to prevent militia mobilization. Have California labor unions protest to President Wilson at once.

The regular meeting of the Contra Costa Building Trades Council held in the Labor Temple last evening, was one of the best attended of that body for many months and a volume of business of vital importance to the council was transacted.

Among the items of interest were the reading of two telegrams, one of greeting from P. H. McCarthy, president of the State Building Trades Council, and Frank McDonald, state organizer.

The council concurred in the action of the 2700 Club in the endorsement of W. F. Petillon for the position of postmaster for the city of Richmond.

The several unions heard from reported favorably in response to a call from the council for assistance for the Clifford Hottinger benefit.

A large group of executive business held the committee from the hall the greater portion of the evening.

A committee from the Central Labor Temple was present relative to pending action between the two councils on a matter of importance to all concerned.

SHOVELMEN SHOW PROGRESS

Of all the labor unions in California, none can show greater progress than that of the Associated Union of Steam Shovelmen, Golden Gate Local No. 2, which has its headquarters in San Francisco.

Within the past four years this organization has increased its membership from 41 members to its present membership in good standing of 275.
In the same period wages have increased from 25 to 30 per cent, and, notwithstanding the fact that there is comparatively little doing in the excavating industry, this union has a larger percentage of its members working than most of the labor organizations on the coast.

At present steps are being taken

TRYING TO SETTLE S. F. STRIKE

Efforts were made yesterday to settle a strike of plasterers in the Stockton-street tunnel, San Francisco.
Civic organizations are planning to celebrate the advent of the first car on November 15 and the delay caused them to press for a quick settlement of the difficulty.

The plasterers say the work was of too poor a character to be done by Plasterers' Union No. 66.

BARBER SHOP TO BE MOVED

A building permit was issued by City Building Inspector L. Wierda, granting permission to remove the barber shop now occupied by L. Foti, at Seventh and Macdonald, to a vacant lot next adjoining the remains of the structure formerly used by the Richmond Terminal.

No contractor was named in the building permit, and the job will not be one entailing great expense. It will probably be completed within a day or so.

The move was made necessary to make room for the new concrete building which is to be erected by Slattery Brothers. When the new building is completed Foti contemplates moving back to his present location.

Hundreds, one might say thousands, of persons go through the world in the pursuit of happiness in one form or another. That is why Hobart Bosworth wrote his "The Pursuit of the Phantom Spirit," which comes to the Richmond theater this evening with five distinct acts.
Bosworth takes the leading role and is supported by a good company.
The story deals with a couple anxious to find perfect contentment in life. It is much on the style of the "Valley of the Moon," by Jack London.
Another big feature is the "We're Here Again" quartette of comedians.

These include Roscoe Arbuckle, Mabel Normand, Charles Chaplin and Mack Sennett, the four funniest personages the movie stage knows.
The Pathe Weekly issue a war extra. The pictures are the first to show the German and English trenches and the troops actually engaged in combat.
Don't forget that on Monday "The Chimes," a Shubert five-act feature, taken from the novel of Charles Dickens, will be shown. Thomas Ferris takes the lead in this picture.

Dr. Charles R. Blake, first assistant in the Eye Department of the S.
F. Polyclinic, makes a specialty of all diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat; also the accurate fitting of glasses. Office in Pillow building, 707

ADS ARE POPULAR READING.

A newspaper's information is varied; it contains news to suit everyone. Some years ago a person who read the ads in a newspaper or magazine was considered odd; and it is true the ads were crude, the articles advertised often being out of season or of a style and texture entirely out of fashion. But now it is different.
Advertising furnishes the most interesting reading matter in the newspaper. It is instructive, teaching the public how to reduce the cost of living and at the same time get the best standard goods.

Tales of a Million Dollars

Two Lots Bought By the Real Estate Dealer

This man handled Richmond property; he KNEW values there; he bought two choice lots in the Nicholl-Macdonald Avenue Business Center Tract—lots 13 and 14, block 2.

Burg Bros., Inc., sold them to him for $4,000 each; he paid only $400 cash. The balance he started to clean up at $40 a month.

But not for long! Before he had made four payments his foresight was justified—the lots were sold at a profit of $500 each.

There in three months he made a profit of $1,000 on a cash investment of $1,040—$84 PER CENT A YEAR!

He sold these lots to different persons, too; that shows the demand there is. And each of these lots has a further history, which you will read here next Sunday.

But it all goes to prove that

"Richmond Has Merely Started"

This real estate man we refer to had worked out his own rules for buying investment property; they were pretty successful, as you will admit. You will find them to agree perfectly with the principles we have collected in our book, "How to Buy Real

Young People Wed In Bower of Pink Roses

At one of the prettiest weddings ever held in Richmond, Sara M. Yohn of Mifflensburg, Pa., became the bride of Con H. Bastin, well known Richmond bachelor, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Levi Shoemaker, 1024 Barrett avenue. Rev. D. W. Calfee officiated.

The wedding march was played by Eva Halles. Little Mildred Bastin, niece of the groom, was a dainty flower girl. The Shoemaker twins, Donald and David, were the ring bearers. Leonard Bastin was best man, Miss Stella Shoemaker maid of honor. The latter was charming in a pink silk gown, and carried a bouquet of gorgeous pink roses.

The bride was faultlessly costumed in a gown of hand embroidered silk organdie. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.

The house was decorated in pink and white. After the ceremony a dainty and delicious wedding supper was served.

Only immediate relatives were present. They came from Oakland, San Francisco and Richmond. The newlyweds will honeymoon to Southern California and will be home to their friends on November 1 in the Star Apartments.

Sewing Circle Has Meeting

The Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Voss, 420 Twelfth street, yesterday afternoon. Refreshments were served in the latter part of the afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Luer, Mrs. Heiser, Mrs. Aelschlager, Mrs. Renkwin and Mrs. Voss.

Company F. Ball Is Brilliant Event

Company F. Moose Defenders, Richmond Lodge No. 550, entertained Company 13, W. R. K. U., at Moose Hall last night with dancing, whist playing and other entertainment. A committee composed of Pape Charles Donnelly, D. De Laney and Major R. B. Moore was in charge of the affair.

Punch was served to the dancers during the evening. Richards' orchestra furnished the music.

Judge Richards, candidate for judge of the Appellate Court, was a visitor.

F. A. Dance Is Big Success

The degree team of Richmond Council No. 583, Fraternal Aid Union, held its regular monthly dance last night in Pythian Castle.

The team which was organized one month ago by George W. Woolf, who is now its captain, appeared on the floor as a reception committee in uniform and presented a pleasing appearance.

A big crowd attended the affair. The Swartz orchestra supplied the music. The next monthly dance of the team will be announced later in the columns of the Daily News.

Sensational News For Baseball Fans Announced by Luce

CONCORD BY WAY O. A. & E.

The long-promised sensational changes in the Elks lineup came last night. Even those who anticipated startling things sat up in their chairs and took notice, when the names of the new players were mentioned.

Manager Luce revealed the fact last night that arrangements were under way to get the famous Dug Brody of the Chicago White Sox here to play in Sunday's game and finish out the rest of the season with us.

BRODY BIG BALL MAN.

The name of Brody is almost sufficient, without any comment on his reputation as a hitter, and his fame as an all-around baseball player, to make him one of the best players.

Although there is a proverb about something like a hit and a slip between the cup and the lip, the chances that we will not be able to get Brody are slim, and the lineup which will travel to Concord will be a world beater.

Another sensational announcement came for the local sport fans right in the same package as the Brody surprise.

Carl Zamlock, crack player, formerly with Denver, and a well known figure on the Detroit lineup, has been signed by the local team. He will play Sunday with the team on third base.

ZAMLOCK PLAYED HERE.

He played with Richmond last year, and has an ace high reputation not only with the bigger leagues, but among the local fans, who raved for many months about his sensational work with the Elks last year. He is a heavy hitter, and is well known as a crack man on bases. He is said to be a "head" man from the word go. Oescheger has been retained, and will put over some of his best from the mound Sunday.

WITH the ousting of Cunboat Smith because of too much knockout, the heavyweight division of the boxing realm is dominated by blacks.

WAGE BOARD MERITS.

The wage board, which was authorized by the navy department, met at the navy yard in Vallejo yesterday. It is necessary that it finish its labors and send in its report before November 15.

LINEUP FOR SUNDAY.

The lineup now is as follows: Oescheger, pitcher; Cleek, catcher; Ingraham, first base; Smith, second base; Carl Zamlock, third base; Cunningham, left field; Riordan, right field, and either Brody or Dutch Arlett, center field.

The team will put in some good ticks at practice before the game, and will be in first class condition to walk off spots from Concord. Their practice with the Sleepy Hollow boys will get them going, and with full steam ahead they will tangle with the Oaks next week.

ELKS TO FINISH FIRST.

That Richmond will more than make up for the drubbing at the hands of Petaluma, and finish the season with one of the highest reputations of any of the county teams, if not the record of the semi-professionals in the state, is confidently predicted.

OAKLAND TO PLAY ELKS

Negotiations were closed at a late hour last night, whereby Richmond will play the Oaks of the Coast League on the local grounds a week from Sunday.

Manager Luce was asked by the Oaks for a game, and after some correspondence received word last night that the Oaks would be over for the game with all of their team, and try their ability to compete with the local boys.

At the opening of the season, the Oaks played Richmond, in a ten-inning game, which resulted in a score of 2 to 1 in favor of the leaguers. Much dissatisfaction was displayed over the work of Foghorn Murphy in the umpire's box, and many claims of his unfairness were made during and after the game.

Manager Luce said last night that Murphy would not umpire Sunday's game, and that from the once over that he had given the Oaks, Richmond stood a mighty good chance of winning the game.

BEAVERS COME BACK IN GAME WITH 'FRISCO

The Beavers came back into their own over the Seals on the Oakland grounds yesterday, by 8-12-2 to 2-10-4. Evans pitched for the winners, against Lelfield for the Seals.

The Oaks went down to another defeat by the score of 7 to 0. Geyer pitched against Stroud of the Missions. The score was 0-8-0 to 7-11-3.

The Tigers, with White on the mound, got 6-10-1 to the Angels 1-9-1, with Chech pitching.

SPORT GOSSIP

THE FINAL interclub race for cycling fans will be run Sunday, when the C. A. C. C. will call a halt to the outdoor season. The Claremont trophy will be raced for.

THE ARMY and Navy game is to be played after all. The date set is November 28. Warring forces ceased long enough to confer yesterday.

BOYS' SOCCER is booming this season in a way that it has not boomed before. Harry Maloney of Stanford is lining up a crack team to play against Palo Alto, Berkeley high and some other live institutions.

THE FAMED TY COB may be seen in action here next spring, if arrangements can be made with Charley Comiskey, his manager. The matter has already been broached.

A TRIPLE alliance, proposed between Stanford, California and Santa Clara, is meeting with some hard knocks and rough comment on the Stanford campus.

BIG GAME tickets are causing more excitement than ever this year, principally because they can't be merchandised as extensively this year as heretofore.

HARLEY DAVIDSON, well known professional skater, has returned from Australia, where he skated all about during his two-year sojourn, and incidentally dabbled into the boxing game. He says Australians are sports, if nothing else.

THE WEST OAKLAND Club has arranged its card for next week. Ralph Grunan and Willie Fitzsimmons will be the main event in a 15-round go.

THE FEDERAL LEAGUE magnates will meet today in New York and James G. Thompson, president of the Feds, says that some big announcements will break in the morning.

IF YOU DON'T believe people are interested in prize-fighting, mention the name of Langford in connection with the proposed match with Harry Willis. The two blacks have stirred up sporting circles some.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

BY SCOOP

Special Dispatch to the Daily News.

FALLON, Marin County, Oct. 21.—We are nearing the scene of action and are about ready to fall on the enemy (Ed. Note: Good Heavens, what a rotten joke). The entire expedition has gained good hiking form and despite slight stiffness from sleeping on the ground last night (Tuesday). By noon today the bunch was in good shape and cheerful. We slept at Camp Pestolessi last night on the 'col' ground, getting into camp at 10 o'clock after a forced night hike of eight miles to maintain our schedule.

Tuesday was spent in interesting exploration and very little progress was made. The oyster beds of Smith and McNab along Tomales bay were gone over in the company's launch. Marin station, the wireless station from which the San Francisco and Pacific Coast messages to Honolulu, Sitka, Panama, Seattle, etc., are dispatched, was thoroughly inspected. Hunting still continues good. Every day the army gets several ducks, a goose, quail and blackberries for grub.

JUDGE LINDSEY FINES "PIGGER" $100 YESTERDAY

Declaring that he would appeal the case to a higher court, Attorney W. D. Grady, for M. Radkovich, heard the sentence of Police Judge William Lindsey this morning, which was a fine of $100.

The matter of taking the case to the courts is looked on by some as merely an idle threat, as the evidence which was produced by Chief of Police Walker in the trial this week was considered conclusive evidence.

Grady stated that the grounds for an appeal were that the city ordinance differs considerably with the charge placed against the accused man.

SHELL COMPANY PAYS TAXES

Tax Collector M. M. Taggart on Monday morning received a check from the Shell company in payment of the 1914-15 city taxes. The check totaled $1293.44 and is the first tax payment which has been made by the Shell interests in this city. When tax paying time comes next year the construction of the big refinery will be well along and the check will probably be considerably larger.

SENTIMENT IS FOR C. A. CLARKE

Judge C. A. Clarke, after rising up the political situation in the county, has found that every indication points to his election to the Superior bench. "I am confident," he declared last night, "that I will receive a large majority of the votes November 5."

Leo F. Torrey for Superior Judge. Boast him. 10-3-1m—Adv.

From here (Fallon), the army will proceed along the narrow gauge railroad of the N. W. P. to Bodega Roads, where it will be left and the cross mountain hike to Bodega bay will be taken up.

From there (this is all reliable, confirmed, esoteric and exclusive news that I have pumped out of the commander-in-chief) the army will proceed up the coast to the mouth of the Russian river, up that historic stream to Guerneville, where reinforcements, about two regiments (one man to the regiment) will arrive from Richmond. Phillip Angell and Donald Gray will probably command the additional forces.

About those two extra-weight carriers, Follett and Stewart:

The ghastly statement made that the former's knapsack was over 135 pounds and the latter's over 145 pounds was explained by the captain today. Follett weighs 135 pounds and Stewart 145 pounds, therefore, their respective knapsacks are over their respective weights.

It will all be over by Saturday. Stewart has become inordinately proud of the fink on his chin and boasts that he will return to Richmond with it tied up in blue ribbons.

CHURCH MEMBERS TENDER REGARDS TO REV. CALFEE

The eleventh annual reception to the Rev. D. W. Calfee of the Wesleyan Methodist church was attended on Wednesday evening by a crowd of approximately 350 friends and admirers of the well known minister, who has labored long and made many friends in this community.

C. D. Rogers presided over the meeting, and Peter McCullum delivered an address of welcome, in which he recounted a history of the pastor and his work in the local fields.

A program consisting of vocal, instrumental and selections and recitations helped make the evening a pleasant one.

The Rev. Calfee answered the many kind speeches commending him, and showing the appreciation felt for him in his work here by an outline of what he had attempted to do, and what he had been permitted to accomplish.

He told of the time when the salary of the minister was $2.50 a week, and the membership of the church but 22.

The church now ranks as one of the strongest churches in Richmond, with a membership of 700. That Dr. Calfee has been successful in his mission in this city was considered indisputable by those who have followed him and his career.

SMALL BOY RUNS AWAY FROM HOME AND IS ARRESTED

Fourteen-year-old Alfred Nanner of Oakland was sent back to his home in Berkeley this morning, after a night spent in the local jail last night.

The lad took the idea that he would like to see the wide world, and set out for Richmond.

He was picked up last night and given a place to sleep.

He told the police that he lived in Berkeley, and that his mother was a laundress and after verification of his story, he was turned over to the Alameda county authorities, and later taken to his home.

left burning on the stove when he went out, and dinner for the men was partly under preparation.

Among those who testified were Engineer Richards, Conductor James Fryor and Fireman Van Dusen, as well as Dr. G. L. Abbott, who attended the man, and other members of the train crew.

The train crew on the train which hit the man did not know of the fatality until they reached Glen Fraser, at which point they were notified that they had killed a man. They got out of the train, and blood and hair were found on the front of the engine, where the man had been hit.

J. L. Ryan was foreman of the jury. Others were Norman H. McLeod, E. S. Brown, Jack Manning, O. M. Ryd, T. J. Carron and L. Yenne.

ADS ARE POPULAR READING

A newspaper's information is so varied it contains news to suit everyone. Some years ago a person who read the ads in the newspaper or a magazine was considered odd, and it is true the ads were crude, the articles advertised often being out of season or of a style and texture entirely out of fashion. But now it is different. Advertising furnishes the most interesting reading matter in the newspaper. It is instructive, teaching the public how to reduce the cost of living and at the same time get the best standard goods.

If you don't already read ads—get the habit—it's a liberal education.

BURGLAR RANSACKS WETMORE RESIDENCE

lying on the floor, and scattered about on the chair. The magazine had been thrown on the bed, and the bed clothing was heaped in a disordered pile on the mattress.

The time at which the robbery occurred was established by the fact that while E. E. Grow was campaigning he stopped at the Wetmore residence at approximately 2:15 p. m. He knocked on the knocker, and waited for a response. While waiting, he heard sounds of a person on the stairs inside, and believing that it might be Mrs. Wetmore, repeated his knock. When this brought no response, he placed one of his cards in the side of the door and turned away, believing that probably Mrs. Wetmore had been lying down, and did not care to put in an appearance at the door.

When telling of his visit to the house to Wetmore yesterday, Grow mentioned the card incident, and revealed the fact that the bold burglar had opened the door, taken out the card, and placed it on a table inside of the house.

Wetmore said last night that he would give $50 to know what purpose the marauder had. He has secured another dog, and made arrangements to protect all of his valuables, and will conduct an investigation to determine what caused the robbery of the house.

An ad. in the Daily News is worth a great deal to the local merchant because the people who back this paper spend their money in Richmond.
